

Jeffrey R. Stein
CACJ President-Elect

Jeffrey Stein, a member since 1976, is President-Elect of CACJ for 2010. A partner in a three person firm in San Luis Obispo practicing exclusively criminal law, his focus is on thinking outside the box, enhancing the tools available to support CACJ's goals, in such areas as legislative advocacy, membership and organizational development. He previously served as legislative committee chair or co-chair in 1994, 2005 and 2006, in 2006; he headed the efforts of CACJ to defeat Prop. 83. He works collaboratively with the leadership to advance CACJ's priorities.
